

EXPEDITIONS EXTRAORDINAIRE

A bespoke, high-end travel service providing one-off experiences, anywhere in the world.

Our motto: "The answer is always YES!"

We clearly understand the needs of well-heeled travelers. As such, we established a dedicated arm of THE URBAN SAFARI to address their unique lifestyle. Without judgment. Without hesitation.

- Need a museum opened on a day it's closed, "Yes."
- Want a private shopping trip with a Hollywood celebrity, "Yes!"
- Don't want to be bored on your private jet ride from SF to LA, "Famous comedian on board"
- A private one-day (or 5-day!) tour of the Wine country? "Just NO Merlot...!"
- San Diego Zoo, 2 hours before public opening, "Of course."
- Yacht? "How long?"
- A private expedition in San Francisco, with superb tickets to a world-class symphony, or sporting event and dinner at a Michelin rated restaurant? "What time would you like dinner?"
- A 12 year-olds "perfect" day in NYC, a private drawing session with a cartoon artist, then a graphic artist for the hero's logo, a tee-shirt shop. Result: highly-exclusive, 'Superhero Club' shirts. "Shazaam!"
- Private s'mores session at a secluded beach "With hand-made marshmallows, of course!"
- Two Bell jet helicopters for transport to save 35 minutes on a trip? "For a bit more sleep"

Over-the-top attention to every detail ensures a seamless event for our domestic and international clients. Two weeks of preparation for a two hour expedition is not uncommon. Contingency planning, security, and anonymity are routine issues, all handled with great respect and care.

EXPEDITIONS EXTRAORDINAIRE can organize one specific element of a journey, or the whole enchilada.
